RESPONSE TO ERRONEOUSLY ISSUED NOTICE OF MISSING PARTS

Hon. Commissioner of Patents
and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

This is in response to the Notice to File Missing Parts of NonProvisional Application dated April 2, 2001, asserting that "oath or declaration is missing." This Notice was erroneously issued inasmuch as all necessary parts of this application, including an executed declaration, were submitted with the application as filed on February 2, 2001. This is clearly shown by the copy of the application as filed, which notes on the cover page thereof "WITH SIGNED DECLARATION" and has attached thereto an executed declaration. The timely filing of this paper is evidenced by the attached copies of the PTO-Mail Room stamped postcard receipts, acknowledging receipt of the "Declaration (1 # pgs).

With regard to the requirement for Sequence Listing in the Notice to File Missing Parts, the sequence listing is being prepared and will be filed in due course along with a further copy of the Notice.

SMITH - U.S. Serial No.: 09/773,599

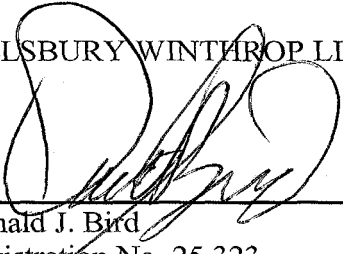

Since the Notice to File Missing Parts was sent due to U.S. Patent Office error with regard to the oath or declaration being missing, the $130.00 fee is not required. However, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees associated with this communication or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 03-3975 under Order No. 09901/0276655. A duplicate copy of this communication is enclosed for accounting purposes.

Respectfully Submitted,
